

WASHINGTON
SEMESTER

SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Join us this summer for the Washington Semester Summer Internship Program, a unique academic and experiential learning opportunity that provides students the skills and knowledge to become active and immediate participants in a competitive job market.

LEARN AT AU

Our innovative classes, expert instruction, guest speakers, site visits, and immersive assignments have shaped the careers of our graduates for over 60 years. Learn from AU professors along with prominent experts and leaders in government, international affairs, non-profit and media organizations. Discuss current events with students from across the country.

“Working in a highly respected Washington consulting firm exposed me to the workings of our Government and to personalities I would otherwise only see in the media. I’m inspired and grateful for this experience.” — Grace Montgomery

Past students have interned with organizations of national and international importance, including:

- The American Bar Association
- U.S. Department of Justice
- U.S. Congress
- Amnesty international
- Bank of America
- Voice of America

WORK IN D.C.

Become career-ready by interning in D.C. You will gain practical knowledge in your field and gain valuable, hands-on experience to help you stand out in today’s job market. Our staff provides expert advice on acquiring an internship before your arrival. Return to your home institution with new and valuable connections to professionals in your field, a stronger résumé enhanced with real-world experience, and academic credit toward your undergraduate degree.

APPLY NOW: american.edu/spexs/summerintern

ENJOY A WORLD-CLASS CITY

With its history and culture, D.C. is a learning laboratory unto itself. Nearly 30% of the area's population is composed of people age 20-34, making the District buzz with youthful energy and excitement. Boasting a thriving arts scene, international diversity, plus numerous monuments and museums, Forbes ranked D.C. #1 in their 2014 list of America's coolest cities.

"My internship offered me many opportunities to engage in D.C. culture. Attending congressional hearings, coalition meetings, think tank events, and staff outings, I fully surrounded myself in D.C. life. Not only did I grow as a student, but also as an individual."

– Julie Duffy

SEMINARS

Local, national, and global experts lead immersive seminars in which you explore key issues in your field. Witness first-hand how non-profits, businesses, government agencies and international organizations turn theory into practice. Hone your professional skills through innovative assignments such as: applied learning activities, business plan development, service-learning, use of media and simulations.

Site visits have included places such as the US Supreme Court, FBI, Washington Post, NBC News, the State Department, Congress, and the World Bank.

Application Deadlines

Priority	February 15, 2017 (for scholarship consideration)
Final	April 28, 2017

APPLY NOW: american.edu/spexs/summerintern
202-895-4900 • washsem@american.edu

SCHOOL of PROFESSIONAL & EXTENDED STUDIES
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY • WASHINGTON, DC

An equal opportunity, affirmative action university.
For information regarding the accreditation and licensing of American University, please visit <http://www.american.edu/academics>.