FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Will my semester apartment be close to public transportation?

Most housing offered by the New York Arts Program is conveniently located near metro, train and bus stations, and one block from Penn Station.

2. Am I required to go to New York City for an interview before I am accepted?

Applicants are encouraged (but not required) to visit the New York Arts Program (NYAP) office for an interview prior to acceptance. Application should be received by the NYAP office at least two weeks before desired interview date. After applications have been received in New York, students will be sent information concerning interviewing, travel, and housing. Plan on three consecutive weekdays of interviewing with a NYAP faculty advisor and with prospective sponsors. Program housing may be available for a fee depending on dates.

3. Who can I contact if I have questions about the application process, or general questions about the New York Arts Program?

- Your first point of contact should be the New York Arts Program official website (www.nyartsprogram.owu.edu).
- If your questions aren't answered by thoroughly checking the website, call the New York Arts Program at (212) 563-0255, or e-mail them at info@nyartsprogram.org.
